

AE Expeditions Wins at Wave Awards

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA, 17 November 2023 – AE Expeditions (part of Aurora Expeditions), the Australian-owned leading expedition travel company, has been named ‘Best Expedition Cruise Line’ at the prestigious 9th annual Wave Awards, held in London earlier this week. The company was also recognised as Highly Commended in the Sustainability Innovation category.

The Wave Awards are one of the UK cruise industry’s premier awards, recognising, rewarding and celebrating innovation and excellence within the sector.

“We are proud and honoured to receive this prestigious industry recognition within the UK, one of our most important global markets. We also congratulate our fellow nominees and winners for their achievements,” commented Chief Marketing Officer, Hayley Peacock-Gower.

“As a company that was started more than three decades ago with exploration and care for the planet at its heart, today our mission is to be the global leader in sustainable expedition travel – so we are especially proud to have also achieved recognition in the Sustainability Innovation category for our groundbreaking Antarctic Climate Expedition 2023, led by Dr Sylvia Earle.”

“We are thrilled to have received this recognition, a testament to the company’s achievements globally as well as the passion and dedication of our team here in the UK, who have been instrumental in the company’s growth and success in this region,” added Jos Dewing, Managing Director – EMEA, AE Expeditions.

AE Expeditions has just released its new season and brochure for Arctic & Beyond 2025, featuring 18 itineraries including the most comprehensive Greenland and Svalbard program yet, four brand new itineraries, new ‘Ultimate Adventure’ voyages as well as its bestselling Scotland and Costa Rica voyages.
